

accomplish that for which he sends them, because every one of them is in his own hands to remove, to lessen, or increase, as he pleaseth.

A quickened sinner can never perish, because God dwells in him ; and as there is no variable-ness nor shadow of turning in God, he does not enter a sinner to-day, and go out to-morrow, but enters to dwell for ever ; the devil cannot drive him out, the world cannot force him out, and the man cannot sin him out.

INVITATION.

O ev'ry hungry, thirsty soul,
Panting to know the Lord :
Jesus alone can make you whole,
And food to you afford.

In his rich covenant of grace,
All that you need is given,
For you are of his chosen race,
To whom is promised heav'n.

Here's precious blood to cleanse from filth,
Here's love to melt your heart ;
Here's righteousness to justify,
Which can't from you depart.

In Christ is all the strength you need,
In him all wisdom's stor'd ;
Dear trembling souls, for you he bled,
Then be his name ador'd.
